your God, and our God.

Readings for next Sunday

Isaiah 6 : 1 – 8 (9 – 13)

THE NEW FACILITIES at ST LAURENCE CHURCH UPWEY: 6.30 TODAY

The Bishop of Sherborne, the Right Reverend Karen Gorham, has agreed to lead a service of Praise and Thanksgiving to celebrate the completion of the installation of our new facilities. All welcome.

NEW OPPORTUNITIES AT ST LAURENCE'S, UPWEY

Following the completion of the new servery at Upwey we would be delighted to hear from people who would like to try them out. We are starting a Refreshment Rota for any who would be willing to assist with serving refreshments after our church services. Please let Pru or Dilys know if you can assist in any way. Thanking you in anticipation. Philip

A Quote for Reflection:

Here is a quote from an article by The Rev'd Andrew Wilson called; Eucharismatic: Why Christians should honour both Spirit and sacrament which reflects on the importance of celebrating our diversity in worship.

To be Eucharismatic, then, is to seek the joy of the whole Church, even though most of us will find some components of corporate worship more appealing than others. For some, it will mean a call to praise him with the loud symbols, as well as the loud cymbals. For others, it will mean insisting on being happy-clappy rather than humpy-grumpy. In many contexts, it will mean being quiet on some occasions and raucous on others. Yet for all of us, however we prefer to express it, it will mean pointing people to Jesus, crucified and risen, as the fountain of living waters, the Lord of the wine, and the only source of everlasting joy.
